Samrat is a part of the firm's general corporate practice group, with a focus on venture capital, private equity, and mergers and acquisitions. He has experience in advising on domestic and cross-border transactions across a wide spectrum of industries, including manufacturing, technology, education, banking and finance, agriculture, food and nutrition, consumer retail, healthcare, real estate, and transportation and logistics.

He regularly advises a diverse set of clients, including offshore and domestic funds, multinational corporations, and emerging businesses. His work spans the entire investment lifecycle from early-stage funding rounds and growth capital investments to strategic acquisitions, exits, and public market transactions.

In addition to his transactional expertise, he has advised on general corporate advisory, covering a broad range of regulatory and compliance matters, including securities laws, foreign exchange regulations, employment and labour laws, and information technology laws.
